To include but not be limited to:

- Plagiarism
  - The act of using ideas, words, or creations from either humans or digital systems, such as Generative Artificial intelligence, without proper attribution or permission and presenting them, either intentionally or unwittingly, as one's own work. Plagiarism encompasses a range of practices beyond just verbatim (word for word) copying. It also includes instances of close paraphrasing, minimal adaptation, and other actions that involve reproducing the work of another source in a way that means the assessed work lacks appropriate originality or proper referencing.

- Collusion
  - when a student or students permit or condone another student or students, to share a piece of work subject to assessment in order to gain a mark or grade to which they are not entitled. Students who allow another student to copy their work are also committing collusion and both the copier and the provider of the work are liable to be penalised. The methods of collusion may include, but are not limited to, sharing of work, ideas or plans by social media or other electronic communication means, and/or physical sharing of work, ideas or plans. Collusion may happen through an exchange or communication outside of an assessment submission and/or at the time of an assessment submission
- Cheating
  - the possession of unauthorised material or the use or attempted use of unauthorised or unfair means (including academic malpractice such as plagiarism or collusion with other students or fabrication or falsification of results) in connection with any examination or assessment

Where AUP is suspected, BBTS retains the right to implement the following procedure (to have been completed within 8 weeks of exam result issue date):

- Involved student(s) are invited to a preliminary meeting (virtual or otherwise) with a Programme Examiner (PE) and Senior Education Officer (SEO) to address initial concerns; the outcome of which may be one of the following:
  - the student's case may be referred directly to PEC for formal review
OR
  - the student may be asked to participate in a viva voce (to establish knowledge level) and a decision will be made based on that;
    - If no admission of AUP, and viva voce result is successful, original grading is upheld
    - If no admission of AUP and viva voce result is unsuccessful, their case will be referred to PEC for formal review.
    - Possible outcomes of PEC review:
      - If the allegation is upheld - all penalties apply (see below)
        - Student has the right to further appeal PEC decision to BBTS President
      - If the allegation is overruled - original grading is applied.
  - If student admits AUP, all penalties apply.
